

OBITUARY FOR NORA M. KEUROGHLIAN

Nora Mary Keuroghlian born Nirvart Mary Ghazikian on July 16, 1934 passed away peacefully on May 18, 2021 at the age of 86, a week shy of her beloved husband's passing on May 27, 2020.

She was born in Atlantic City to Armenian immigrants, raised in Philadelphia and active in the Armenian community. She met and married Gregory Hagop Keuroghlian, moved to Boston in 1964, had 3 children and relocated to Dunedin, Florida in 1975.

Nora was known to be vivacious, hospitable, and friendly to all. She took great pride in her Armenian heritage and preserved it through Hye cooking and baking. She was a social butterfly that lived life to its fullest. Her nature was selfless and generous. Her spirit, ever joyous and contagious. She lived every moment in the light God gave her and she illuminated those she came in contact with. She was in a word: uplifting. Even though she sacrificed much in her life, she did it with grace for those she loved. May she finally fulfill her dreams now and find her peace with the Lord and her dearly departed husband, her brother and her parents before her.

She was ready to go home but those she left behind were not. Pray for her children: Talene Keuroghlian McCarthy, Melik Gregory Keuroghlian and Nairi Keuroghlian Chapman, their spouses Brian McCarthy, Houri Kojian and Benjamin Chapman, respectively, and her 7 grandchildren: Brian, Anoush, and Sarina McCarthy, Alina and Alexa Harrington, and Armen and Raffi Chapman. She is also survived by her extended family: nephew Steven Ghazikian, her cousins Seda Hakopian, Melissa Selverian, Gilbert, Janice and Lynn Demirjian, Jack Mehlbaum, Heather Wesolowski and all their families. Her in-laws: Elizabeth Keuroghlian, Jannet Anmahian, Evoush Sevilla and her God daughter Alexine Keuroghlian and their families.

Private family services will be held. Nora will be cremated and interred at Curlew Hills Memory Garden where she and Greg can be visited.
