

DISCOVERY OF THE HOLY CROSS

This Sunday, October 29, the Armenian Church celebrates the Feast of the Discovery of the Holy Cross (Kyud Khachi). Empress Helena, mother of Constantine and a devout Christian, wanted to visit the Holy Land and explore the sites Christ had walked centuries ago. She went to Golgotha (Calvary), which had become an obscure and neglected place. According to some chronicles, it was an informed Jew named Juda who pointed out the location. At her instruction, workers excavated the site, and three wooden crosses were found. Which one was the True Cross? The three crosses were successively placed on the body of a youth who had just died. When one of the crosses was placed on him, the young man came back to life. This was determined to be the True Cross. The commemoration of this event takes place on the Seventh Sunday of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross.

FINDING YOUR CROSS

Gospel Reading: Matthew 24:27-36

Have you ever lost something? How did that make you feel? How long did you search for it? How did you feel when you found it? Imagine losing something for more nearly 300 years. That's what happened to the cross Christ died on.

After Christ was crucified, the cross was thrown away and forgotten. For early 300 years no one knew where it was but then the empress, Saint Helena, came to Jerusalem looking for it. She asked many people and finally found not only the cross (buried under the floor of a pagan temple), but also the tomb of Christ and many other holy sites. When the cross was discovered, she also found two other crosses (the crosses of the thieves who died with Jesus). No one knew which cross was Christ's and which was not.

At the same time there was a funeral passing by for a young boy. They decided to take the dead boy's body and placed it on each cross. When the placed his body on the first cross nothing happened. When they place him on the second cross, his body remained cold and breathless. But when his body touched the third cross - he came back to life! Everyone was amazed at the miracle, excited to find the cross of Christ and praised God.

Ever since that day, we celebrate this event because it reminds us of an important truth. Each of us have a cross we are called to find within ourselves and carry. it won't be a physical cross, but a type of service to God that feels like a cross. It may cause us discomfort or be difficult, but if we find it and carry it (do the service God asks us to do for His glory) it will transform us into something better than we are today.

Your cross (that service to God) may be a responsibility you don't like doing or a job that seems boring or a mission you don't think you can do. But if you fulfill that responsibility, job or mission, you will be a better person and a better Christian.

What do you think might be your cross?
How can you find it?

SPIRITUAL THOUGHT

Do not search today for men who can be helpful to you, but search for those men to whom you can be helpful. It is the way of the world to want to benefit from others, whereas it is the way of God to want to be helpful to others. Choose the way of God.

Color the picture and write down what cross means to you.

For me CROSS is _____
